RESULT OF TOWN MEETING

March 13, 1951

Meeting was called to order at 10 a. m. by the Moderator, John W. R. Brooks. Warrant was then read by Moderator after which Prayer was offered by Rev. Floyd G. Kinsley.

Prayer for Town Meeting, March 13th, 1951.

God of our fathers, known of old, through Whom they received faith to found our fair community as "A beautiful place of Pines," and who gavest to their children the integrity to preserve it as the Community we now enjoy and cherish, be with us yet, lest we forget, Lest we forget that it is of Thy providence that such benefits are ours.

For the privilege of gathering that each may have a part in the government by which we are governed, we give Thee thanks, and grant that in our deliberations of of this day we may constantly be controlled by Christian charity and fair mindedness; and may we covet and cherish for all the regret to hold and express the truths that Thou givest us to see. And will Thou refine and purify the light that comes to each of us, until that truth shall more and more be begun, continued and ended in Thee. Guide those whom we shall choose to conduct our affairs that they may ever be mindful of the trust and confidence we place in them.

May we never cease to be vigilant in guarding here in our midst those principals for which our sons and daughters have gone out from our Community to preserve; Yea, which those principals they are even now on land and sea and in the air sacrificing to preserve. Guard and keep them strong and steadfast in Thee; that they laboring there, and we laboring here, may hasten the day when Justice "shall run down as waters and righteousness as a mighty stream." And this we pray in the name of Christ. Amen.

In the Spring the Library was asked to take charge of circulating books sent from the State Library to be used by teachers taking the course "Speech for Teachers." This course was given at the Academy once a week for a period of fifteen weeks. At the close of the course the books were returned to the State Library.

Book Week was observed from November 11 to 17. On display was the Poster "New Horizons with Books," designed by Marcia Brown. Books for young people were exhibited during the week, then put into circulation.

The outstanding work added to the Reference Department this year is the two-volume edition of Webster's New World Dictionary of the American Language. Some gifts have been received and thanks are given to the donors.

From time to time teachers have taken collections of books in the schools, so that the circulation of children's books is actually larger than appears on my records.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Hampton:

I herewith submit to you my twenty-second annual report as Superintendent of your schools. Included will be reports from the Principals of the Academy and High School and the Centre School. The heads of various departments have also been asked to report a summary of the work of their respective programs. The statistics presented are those of the school year 1950-51, the last completed school year, except that the September pupil enrollment is that of September 1951. Although some class enrollments have increased above these figures, it seems best for purposes of comparison to consider only the initial enrollment.

The present year began Wednesday, September 5th, 1951 with an initial enrollment of 658. This compares with last year's figure of 596 and the previous year's 606. It is noticeable that our largest registrations are in the lower grades with 156 pupils in grades one, two and three and with 123 in grades four, five and six. The kindergarten, with 53 children in attendance, is the largest so far enrolled. This foresees increasing enrollments under normal growth during the coming years. As new homes are constructed in town, it is reasonable to expect still further growth.

In September 1953, a ninth grade of 75 pupils will enroll in the High School. This is the minimum figure since it considers only the pupils now enrolled in grade seven and does not take into account the children in families who will move into Hampton or its neighboring towns. As this and following classes move up, the High School population will be above capacity.

The plans for the Centre School anticipated the time when the Junior High School (grades seven and eight) would move out of the present building, since their rooms would be needed to completely house kindergarten through six.

The survey made in 1949 by the Educational Service Associates prophesied an enrollment of 693 in the year 1953. This was based upon normal growth. Increases above this now bring our expected total to 729 as a minimum. The only solution seems to be provision for housing grades seven, eight and nine. This would relieve the foreseen overcrowding in both the Centre School and High School. With these three grades together we would have a unit of two hundred pupils, a more efficient grouping than our present one hundred.

There seems to be several methods of meeting our situation, each of which has its own unique advantages. The construction of a new building housing grades seven, eight and nine should be considered. This would eliminate the wide spread that now exists, in age and development, among the pupils in our Centre School. Additions to one or the other of our present buildings is also a possibility. Consideration should be given to some form of consolidation with neighboring towns. The committee appointed at the school meeting of 1951 "to study present and future housing of the secondary school program in Hampton" is considering various plans and will bring in its report.

The present new addition to the Centre School now serves the kindergarten and two divisions each of grades one and two. The activity room will probably be completed by the time this report is published. The six classrooms incorporate many of the most improved principles of modern school construction. The furniture is moveable. This enables the teacher to arrange pupils in different small groups in accord with their varying needs and activities. The unit of instruction is now a group rather than an entire class. The benefits of this method are evident. Modern instruction requires more room. For this reason the rooms measure 40 x 24 rather than 28 x 22, the previously approved size in our Centre School. The rooms of the main building were increased in size by removing the cloak partitions. The old wooden floors are now replaced by tile-asphalt in the addition and linotile in the main part. Lighting has been given special attention. All floors are light colored, the walls are finished in attractive colors with a high reflector factor. The windows are unusually large and the artificial lighting of the most approved type.

Each classroom for the lower grades is a self-contained unit with toilets, sink, counter and wardrobe within the room. This construction leads to a more efficient administration with less confusion throughout the building.

There are fourteen classrooms in the Centre School. These allow for two divisions of each grade, kindergarten through six with a small remedial room. As soon as grades seven and eight are housed elsewhere, our situation will be all that can be expected.

As an improved service to the children of our school, the Lions club of Hampton has purchased a Keystone Telebinocular and presented it to the schools of Supervisory Union No. 21. This machine more accurately tests the eyes of the pupils, measuring the sight for different defects, near and far sightedness, color blindness and movement of the eyes in vertical and horizontal directions. From these tests, defects will be found and analized which were not found before. This contribution of the Lions club will aid naturally in the school work of the pupils.

I wish to compliment the teaching staff of Hampton on their willingness to devote their own time to professional courses that they might better serve the children under their care. Twenty-seven teachers have done work for college credit since the report last year. This was done at five different colleges or through courses given in Hampton by college staffs. Of the two courses in Hampton, that of last year was in charge of the University of New Hampshire faculty. The second Hampton course is now being conducted by the Harvard-Boston University extension service. We are pleased that teachers from other districts in New Hampshire and Massachusetts enrolled with us for this work.

The Hampton School District has faith in visual education. It now has two moving picture machines, one of which was given to us by the Trustees of the Academy. A film strip machine was also purchased by the Trustees. At the winter meeting of Supervisory Union No. 21, the purchase of a film strip library was authorized. These strips are strictly teaching aids, made by recognized teachers for presentation of school subjects. Since they are costly, it was felt that an individual district could not offer a library of its own. By joint purchase of the seven districts, the entire library will be available to all, the cost being apportioned according to the number of pupils who will be using the films. Pictures are always attractive to children. If arithmetic, geography, history and science can be presented in picture form, the lessons are learned more easily.

The Trustees of the Academy and High School have continued their policy of generous contributions to the program of the school. A Powermatic 16" planer was presented to the Academy. This is an expensive item and will save the district expense since we can now plane our own rough stock. The Home Economics department was furnished a complete Bavince Case with a capacity of 28 boxes, with two sewing tables to match. The heavy duty vacuum cleaner is also a gift of the Trustees. They have also continued their policy of supplying the school with new typewriters — one of these being an electric Royal. These contributions serve to make the work of the Academy more pleasant and more efficient.

Hampton schools now have a staff of thirty-two teachers, nine of whom are new to the district — two of these being additions because of divided grades. The large fifth grade will require one more teacher for the year 1952-1953. The interest of the teachers in the welfare of the pupils is proven daily by faithful endeavor in their contacts with the children. It is also proven by the fact that they have formed their own organization whose purpose is to still better serve the schools. They have worked under difficulties this year, caused by the constuction of the addition, which was continued after the classes were organized. The lack of facilities for continuing the lunch program offered problems. Our auditorium was also denied them. In spite of these handicaps, I believe the year will prove our staff to be an efficient body and the year a successful one.

As always, the Parent-Teacher Association is a valued ally of the school. It has shown active interest in the welfare of the pupils. When the redecorated lunch room is available, its help will be appreciated. It is encouraging to know that there is such a group of interested citizens always working for the welfare of the schools and its pupils.

Our schools are continually checked by recognized standards. The work accomplished is measured in terms of approved statistics. It is hoped that parents and citizens may visit often. Consultations with teachers lead to united effort of home and school. Each has its contribution to the life of your child. Working together, the child may be led to the fulfillment of his potentialities. This is the purpose for which schools are founded.

I wish to express my appreciation for the help of our efficient school board, for the achievements of an excellent staff of teachers, and for pupils of whom we all are proud.

Respectfully submitted,

ROY W. GILLMORE,

Superintendent of Schools.

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Dear Mr. Gillmore:

I herewith submit my annual report as Principal of Hampton Acadmy and High School.

Over the last year there has been so slight a change in the enrollment that our physical condition remains the same. We are just at our capacity and fit into the building comfortably. The class we expect to enter next year is somewhat larger and we will need additions to our equipment. I would suggest than an allowance be made in the budget and that an order for homeroom desks be placed soon.

The tarring of the play and parking area has been an advantage. It is much more usable. We still need more play area. The physical education classes should be held out-of-doors during the season weather permits. I have recommended the purchase of the field out back many times. I still think it would be a wise move.

We have been allowed fifty dollars to obtain films. The increased cost of transportation and rental makes it necessary for as to ask for an increased allowance. In order to make the money go as far as possible we have used mostly free films. The advertising included under such circumstances has not been objectionable. Postage both ways makes these films stand us about $1.25 each.

We have all felt the need to improve our library. Modern methods of teaching use more and more reference books. I have asked all teachers to be alert in keeping us informed of their needs. It would be advisable, therefore, to make provision in the budget so that these needs can be met. You have always found a way to get books for us and we appreciate it. However, this item is likely to be larger in the future and I think it only fair to warn you.

During the past year many things asked for in the past have been obtained and are in use. We want to express our appreciation to the school board and trustees for a micro-projector, a film strip projector, a duplicating machine, science equipment, shop machinery, driver training aides, band instruments and equipment, office machines and files beside the usual supplies. Our storage space and locker rooms have been improved. Shrubs and trees have added to the attractiveness of the building and grounds. The youth of this community are indeed fortunate to have such attractive, well equipped schools.

Several years ago we did considerable remedial work in the fundamentals. Our steady growth and high teacher load, as a result, made us temporarily give it up. We are returning to that program and have inaugurated classes in remedial arithmetic this year through the interest of one of our teachers. A test was given and all pupils falling below an agreed-upon standard were required to take remedial classes. Of course pupils do not like additional work, but we believe it has real value. We hope to extend the program to include reading, writing and place geography.

Last year we graduated a class of forty-five. Thirteen are attending college, two preparatory school, two business school, one nursing school and one photography school. Fifteen are employed, one is in the Air Force and two are married.

This is the first year we have had the full-time services of a music supervisor. It has made a noticeable difference in the high school. The band appeared at our football games, a concert has been conducted and an operetta is planned for the spring. Classes in music appreciation are held regularly in addition to the glee clubs and chorus. I feel we have moved in the right direction.

I feel that we have a well-balanced school program at present. We are meeting the needs of the youth of the community in an adequate manner. There is always the question of how far we should extend our services without it becoming too great a burden on the taxpayer. I believe that this community has reason to be proud of its schools.

I want to commend our teachers for their cooperation. They often devote their time for extra-curricular activities beyond the usual day's work. While I believe that they should, it is nice to know that it is appreciated.

In this brief report I have touched on the things that I thought should be commended or ones I felt needed attention.

I want to express my appreciation to you and the school board for past assistance and to request your cooperation in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

BRUCE E. RUSSELL,

Principal.

CENTRE SCHOOL REPORT

To the Superintendent of Schools:

I herewith submit by Annual Report for the Centre School for 1951-1952.

Many changes have taken place since the last report was presented and much progress has been made.

Due to building conditions, school was started somewhat late in September, with the Junior High occupying the High School auditorium and the first six grades in session at the Centre School. Tentative plans at this writing are that we shall be in session longer in June to make up for some of the time which was lost.

There were a number of alternatives to consider when it was definitely seen that the new addition to the Centre School would not be ready for occupancy in September but the best solution for all concerned seemed to be to open the Centre School, grades one through six on an all-day session and to place the Junior High School at the High School in the manner mentioned above. It was confusing at first but everyone assumed his share of the burden and it worked out better than had been anticipated.

After Christmas, progress enough had been made on the addition so we could move into our permanent quarters. The Kindergarten started in its regular rooms and both sections of grades one and two were moved into the rooms they would normally occupy at the Centre School and movement for this school year was ended.

Things in general are most satisfactory both in the renovated old building and in the new addition. The color scheme is excellent and the modernization has made the entire plant a pleasant and practical place in which to work. There have been many favorable comments from pupils, teachers and visitors.

From an administrative standpoint the changes are excellent, because it makes natural areas into which groups of comparative ages may play together. This factor alone is worth much. At the present time the basement has not been completed, the activity room is not ready and the auditorium is not finished but prospects are they too will soon be available for use.

It is very difficult to describe what has been done and how facilities are being used, but it is hoped that an open house will be held in the not-too-distant future where the whole plant will be open for public inspection.

Several new members to the staff were present when school opened in September; Miss Phyllis Brown as Kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Barbara Martens, grade four, Mrs. Elizabeth Goggin in grade four, Miss Elvira Lewis, grade five, and Mr. Robert Martens for Junior High Social Studies. With the new teacher changes, Mrs. Wormwood was placed in grade three and Mrs. Stevens in grade six, those grades being nearer the areas where both had the most experience. All are doing a fine job and Hampton is fortunate in having such a fine elementary school teaching staff. Mrs. Goggin left at Christmas vacation and was replaced by Mrs. Whittum, who is also a fine teacher.

Other school activities are being carried on, though for obvious reasons we have not done as much on some of them as in previous years. Our visual education program has been sharply curtailed insofar as films are concerned for lack of a place to show them but we have found a good substitute in the new slide projector which can be used quite readily in each room. Film strips used in this projector, in many respects, are better than films for they can be made to be much more timely and correlate much better. It is hoped that we shall be able to do more with films and the movie projector when we can again use the auditorium.

Our testing program has included the Kinder Preference tests in grade eight, Iowa Reading tests in grades four through eight, Metropolitan Complete Battery in grades two and three and Primary Mental Abilities tests in grade one. We also have just completed the new Progressive Achievement Battery in grades four through eight though the results have not returned. These tests when profiled and placed in each child's cumulative record folder present bits of evidence which when summed up over a period of years gives a fairly accurate account of any child's behavior pattern.

Now that construction is nearly complete, it is already time to be thinking seriously of what is to happen to the Junior High School. This plant is not designed to house them and we already are being crowded by their presence. At this writing they are using a room which was supposed to be a testing and reading room and Mrs. Simmons has to use the Teachers' room for her classes. The teachers need their room and it should be returned to them. Next year when grade five is divided we shall already have no regular room for one of the Junior High School grades.

It is only a thought, but it could be a practical solution of our Junior High School problem to plan with the cooperation of Hampton Falls and North Hampton some type of a consolidated Junior High which would relieve crowded conditions in all of them, including our Senior High School.

It is probably being planned, but another problem for consideration should be landscaping of the grounds with the addition of some hard surfaced play areas and some new playground equipment. Conditions as they now exist make it difficult and children do not get the most out of their play.

Our other school activities such as athletics, music, art, physical education, etc., are being carried on in their usual way and individual reports will account more fully for them. Mr. Eastman had one of the best baseball teams last spring that we ever had, when he came up with an undefeated season against competition which included much larger schools than ours. Basketball this year has not been quite so successful because about all the regulars were lost by graduation and this coupled with lack of practice facilities and ineligibility rulings has made a difference.

We are still using the Rinehart Handwriting System with good results. This year we have started the first grades on Print-Script writing instead of Cursive because research has proven that children learn to read more quickly and easily when the type of letters they use in their writing coforms more closely to the kind they see in their reading.

In spite of the conditions under which we have operated since last September the children of Hampton have not suffered or lost out on part of their education for tests show we are on a par with this same period in other years.

Respectfully submitted,

M. WAYNE BOWIE, Principal.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND ATHLETICS REPORT

Dear Mr. Gillmore:

Following is the annual report of Physical Education and Athletics.

The activities engaged in at the High School have been essentially the same, instruction in the skills of football, volleyball, softball and basketball, followed by game situations. Hand hockey, a modified game, continues to meet the interest and needs of the boys in vigorous and competitive activity. The individual activities of badminton and archery were again presented. Some of these activities were modified because of the lack of a grassed area. Tumbling and combative activities were also a part of the program.

Following the basketball season, an intramural program in basketball and volleyball, in the form of a consolation-elimination tournament, was conducted.

The present is critical. Total mobilization may be called at any moment to save our way of life. One essential need is physical fitness among our youth approaching induction into the armed forces. Our potential enemies are primitive, rugged and unaffected by the ease and prosperity of this machine age which democracy has created. A high level of physical fitness among American youth will not only provide a better defense; it may lead to the very survival of many who might otherwise succumb during combat situations.

We are now planning to introduce the program based on Physical Fitness Achievement for American Youth of High School graduation ages as suggested by the Department of Defense. The testing program will be set up in batteries of five tests which include basic physical activities such as running, jumping, climbing, throwing, lifting, dodging, etc.

The program for the boys in the Junior High school has included simple combatives, relays, tumbling, pyramid building, and skills in the various seasonal sports; self-testing activities based on jumping, running and throwing, and net games modified to the auditorium.

In grades one through six, the program has had to be modified because of lack of suitable areas for activities. The program has consisted of simple group games, relays, modified games, quiet games, self-testing activities and exercises which strengthen the body. Posture exercises and evaluation by teacher and pupil have been part of the program.

We eagerly look forward to the completion and use of the new activities room which will extend the program.

Before landscaping of the Center School begins, there should be a plan made of the area adjacent to incorporate some of the following ideas:

1. Areas allocated to the primary and intermediate groups.

2. These areas to contain apparatus suitable for the age group. (Most of the present apparatus is suited to the upper grades.) Swings and Jungle Gym should be placed in the primary area. A jumping platform and a climbing fence of varying height can be home-made.

3. Suitable area should be reserved for eventual installation of a hard surface area.

Advance planning is a must to prevent haphazard installation of appartus and to provide free play away from such apparatus.

ATHLETICS

Our athletic teams during the past year were primarily in a rebuilding status. The only group that had a real measure of success was the track team, which placed second in the State Meet.

The Athletic Council has functioned well in administering the athletic program. Its finances are in a healthy position in comparison with last, even though equipment costs have gone up and gate receipts down.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN G. PETERSON,
Director of Physical Education.

Dear Mr. Gillmore:

The schedule for the Junior High School classes for girls is arranged the same as last year with a double period once a week alloted to each grade. When warm weather permitted, classes were held on the hard-surface courts at the High School. At this time drills and lead-up games in basketball occupied half of the time while the other half included large group games. During cold weather, because of the building project at the Centre School, classes are held in the classrooms where quiet group games are played.

A cheerleading squad, recently organized, consists of eight eighth graders and two seventh graders. We are still using the old white and navy blue uniforms given to us by the High School when they purchased new ones. It is our hope that snappy, new uniforms for the Junior High will soon be provided.

On Saturday mornings classes for those interested in developing further skills in basketball have been held from 10 a. m. to 11 a. m. The grades included are from six through eight.

In the High school, the fall schedule included field hockey, drills and playing under Mrs. Pitman's supervision. Basketball was incorporated shortly after the close of the field hockey season. The program included introduction of new skills, drills and play in basketball with the fundamental aim of drawing out those students possessing inferior feelings because of the lack of skills. Saturday mornings from 11 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. are devoted to those high school pupils interested in personal development of skills and techniques in basketball.

Classes in basketball for those on the interschool team are held after school sessions in the gymnasium. This season the girls won eight out of twelve games played. On January 19th twelve girls traveled to the University of New Hampshire in Durham to partake in a basketball playday. Attempts throughout the whole season have been made to instill in all the participants, not only the eagerness to win and win fairly, but also good, wholesome sportsmanship as a necessary quality for all genuinely interested in athletic activities.

Other activities to be included in the phsical education program for the remaining year are badminton, volleyball, rhythmic activities, softball, and large group games. Stunts and tumbling has recently been introduced for the purposes of developing well-rounded physical poise, rhythmic skills, and finer coordination. An intramural program in basketball and volleyball is planned to include a greater number of participants and to encourage those reserved pupils to enter the game with zest and pleasure, and without the fear of ridicule.

Respectfully submitted,

MUSIC REPORT

Dear Mr. Gillmore:

Following is a report of the work in Music in the Hampton School during 1951.

Our work in the grades continues as usual to follow the program of singing, dancing, listening. The purchase of the portable record player and small portable organ facilitates the carrying out of this program.

The work at the Center School culminated in a program given by all the pupils in June when the English Operetta "Six and Four are Ten" was presented. The proceeds from the Operetta were used to pay our indebtedness for the organ and to buy an excellent collection of records suitable for all grades.

The music at the High School has included one regular class in Appreciation and two regular classes starting in September. Girl's Ensemble, Mixed Chorus and Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs make up the singing classes.

Pupils in the High School music classes attended four festivals during the past year, two concert festivals and two auditions festivals. Both Girls' Ensemble and Mixed Chorus received Superior rating at the New England Festival in Boston in May.

The Band went to the Boston Festival and played in Hampton on Memorial Day.

In September, three gentlemen started giving lessons on band instruments, under the auspices of our school department. Mr. Howard Rowell of Haverhill teaches brasses; Mr. Nelson Ward of Portsmouth, clarinet; and Mr. Burke of Portsmouth, drums. The instrumental program as now set up is giving good results.

Since giving my full time to the Hampton Schools, I feel we are accomplishing much more and the enjoyment of music by the pupils is therefore much increased.

Respectfully submitted,

ESTHER B. COOMBS,

Director of Music.

SCHOOL NURSE'S REPORT

Dear Mr. Gillmore:

The following report is submitted for the year 1951.

Regular routines have taken place as far as the Health Program is concerned.

Visual tests have been given in cases of suspected visual defects, and corrected — also several children have received special aid, which has been sponsored by the Lions Club of Hampton. The rest of the school will be tested by the new Keystone Visual apparatus which has also been made available by them.

The new School Doctor has been appointed, therefore physical examinations will soon be in progress. This exam is to be done on the 1st, 5th and 8th grades — which enables the children to have a physical at the beginning, middle and end of grade school — and also before entering High School. Also all sport activities are to be preceeded by a physical exam.

Dental Clinic is in session and many of the children have taken advantage of the financial savings the clinic affords. Also the Red Cross has again brought financial aid to those who need it.

All children are weighed and measured yearly upon entering school — and are also to be checked in the spring. This enables the nurse to keep an accurate growth chart on each individual through his growing years.

Respectfully submitted,
TERESA D. HAY, R. N.

ART TEACHER'S REPORT

Dear Mr. Gillmore:

I submit the following report on Art in the High School and Centre school for 1951.

Painting with poster paints is now practised in full in the first six grades giving a great deal more joy and satisfaction to more pupils than did the old program of just crayon and free hand cutting. We paint every other week with all pupils participating at once, giving a richer and fuller program to the pupils than painting only a few at a time. Crayon and free hand cutting is being done between painting classes.

An exhibition of painting from all the grades, one through High School was shown at the Hampton Home Center showing childlike interpretations of landscapes, activities, portraits, and impressionistic Art. In the spring a large exhibition of all types of work was shown at a P. T. A. meeting.

The High school class opened in September with a class of thirty-six pupils, about 12 more than can be handled with ease as four classes meet at once, with pupils progressing at their own rate of speed and all problems presented individually relative to the pupil's need. More time in the High school could be used to a great advantage.

An enjoyable program was presented in the High school by the Art class with student painting and teacher participation.

I wish to thank all the teachers for their splendid cooperation and you Mr. Gillmore and the Board of Education for the fine materials used in the Art program.

JANICE E. WHOLEY,
Art Teacher.
